"Seasons: Reflections in Verse" is a vibrant tapestry of emotions, woven by the creative threads of the PG Department of English. This anthology captures the ebb and flow of life's moments, as students and faculty reflect on the seasons that shape us. From love and loss to growth and introspection, these poems distill the essence of human experience. A poignant reflection of the human journey, these verses invite readers to pause and introspect.

To the visionary forerunners and pioneering spirits who shaped the Department of English, with gratitude and reverence. Your legacy inspires us to soar.
